

Dr, Loganathan Vadivel is currently working as Regional Director, Regional Centre of IGNOU, Itanagar. He worked as an Assistant Professor in the Department of Economics, Directorate of Distance Education, Madurai Kamaraj University past 10 years. He earned UG and PG degree in Economics and started his career as a Lecturer at Cyryx College, Maldives. He received a Master of Philosophy and Doctor of Philosophy in Economics from Bharathidasan University. His area of research is related to patterns of trade and the Open Economy. Particularly, interested in the trade pattern of the agriculture sector with other countries and the determinants of export and import. Another area of interest is exploring the impact of policies on macro-economic issues viz poverty, climate change, issues related to socially relevant, unemployment, exchange rate, and domestic production. He has organized international conferences and workshops in the capacity of organizing secretary and organizing committee members. He also organized an Online Process Orientation Training Programme (POT) on Child Centric Disaster Risk Reduction (CCDRR) and an Online Training Programme on Engaging Youth & Adolescents in Disaster Risk Management and Climate Change Adaptation in collaboration with NIDM, New Delhi. Participated and presented more than 18 conferences at national and international levels. Published more than 16 research papers in various journals including SCOPUS, UGC CARE listed, and Peer Reviewed journals.